

HONEY IS FOR BEARS

Foreign and Domestic News Favor Their Speculations.

THEY HAMMERED THE LIST

The Pressure to Sell Was Not Very Heavy and the Market Closed Steady in Tone.

New York, July 17.—Money on call has been easier, ranging from 3 to 8 per cent, last loan at 3 per cent and closing offered at 3 per cent.

Government bonds steady. The stock market opened chiefly to unfavorable advices from London, where the markets for securities were reported flat, and to the long list of failures in banking and mercantile circles on this side.

The bears were practically in full control and hammered pretty much everything with more or less success. The decline was equal to 3/8 of 1 per cent. The pressure to sell was not particularly heavy, the sales for the entire day aggregating only 10,000 shares, including 10,000 unlisted.

New York Foreign. New York, July 17.—Wheat—Weak winter wheat, low grades, 1.00-1.05 per bushel.

Wheat—Fairly active for export. Closing firm; July closed at 71 1/2¢; August, 70 1/2¢; October, 70 1/2¢; December, 71 1/2¢.

Corn—Options opened firm at 52 1/2¢ points up, closed steady at 51 1/2¢ points up. Corn—July closed at 51 1/2¢; August, 51 1/2¢; October, 51 1/2¢; December, 51 1/2¢.

Chicago Markets. Chicago, July 17.—Wheat was weak today owing to the dullness and narrowness of trade, the weakness of stocks in Wall street and the reports of more bank failures in the west.

Corn was dull and weak. There was free selling under the influence of the fall of the market on Saturday's close, while July sold down 1/2¢ from its highest point during the day.

Cattle—Receipts, 19,000; market steady; common to extra steers, $12.50-13.25; steers and heifers, $12.50-14.00; cows and bulls, $11.00-12.00.

Chicago Livestock. Cattle—Receipts, 19,000; market steady; common to extra steers, $12.50-13.25; steers and heifers, $12.50-14.00; cows and bulls, $11.00-12.00.

London Grain. London, July 17.—The foreign grain markets opened this morning irregular, at London wheat was unchanged, but the feeling appears weaker; corn was steady.

LOCAL MARKETS.

Monday, July 17.—The local market for wheat is dull and almost lifeless owing to the low price prevailing and the small amount offered. Farmers are busy in harvesting the ripening wheat and hay to spend time in hauling their last year's wheat to market for so low a figure, unless through dire necessity to meet present wants.

Other grains hold their own and meet with ready sale at former quotations. Sugars are firm and a further advance from last quotations is daily expected. The poultry market is firm at a slight advance in prices. The demand is good, but the supply is somewhat limited. Fresh meats are a little slow of sale owing to the excessive warm weather.

Market for whortleberries is fair, the ruling price being $2.25-2.40 per bushel. New peas are scarce on account of the dry weather, 50 cents per bushel being the prevailing price. Other produce in good supply. We quote:
